

NEWS SEPTEMBER 2008Contract with municipality of Ston for a regional development plan

The municipality Ston is located in Croatia on the peninsula Peljesac near by the city of Dubrovnik. This area is famous for its many historic and cultural sights and its world-famous oyster farming.

MEP and its partners in Germany and Croatia signed in September a contract with the municipality to elaborate a sustainable regional development plan.

Municipality of Ston, historical city wall

The aim of the works and cooperation is mainly to prepare the basis for the urbanistic, economic and infrastructural development of the region and to emphasise additionally the strengths of the region for a successful regional development in future.

“In this most beautiful region of Europe it is a ambitious and challanging project with long termed perspectives”

said Martin Pietsch, CEO of mep Projekte GmbH.

more information:

Martin Pietsch
pietsch@mep-pojekte.de

<http://www.mep-projekte.de>